ALL TRAFFIC IN VANCOUVER TO KEEP TO RIGHT

British Columbia Had Been Following English Custom of Turning to Left.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 12.—British Columbia will keep to the right on its highways and city thoroughfares starting tomorrow when the provincial law passed two years ago goes into effect. It has been known for the British custom of turning to the left.

Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta have been operating under similar laws for sometime, while Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island they still adhere to the left turn.

The change in British Columbia will necessitate a re-routing of auto roads and all other traffic traffic. The change will be welcomed by automobileists, as in travelling into neighboring provinces and adjoining states considerable confusion and danger has resulted because of the different laws relating to traffic. The law was brought about by mail through the various automobile clubs and assumed the initiative in the matter.

When the law was passed, it was applicable to unincorporated districts.

Lower Mainland and Vancouver is land districts on January 1, 1921.

The government decided to delay bringing the act into effect in the cities until the first of the year, in accordance with the request of the British Columbia Electric Railway company, which operates street car systems in Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster.

The British Columbia Electric company was faced with the grave problem in connection with the "turn to the right" plan. The company had to spend one million dollars to alter its equipment to meet new conditions of this nature. However, the provincial government contributed $250,000.

Complicated changes in electric one of the three hundred and nineteen cars owned by the company had to be made. In addition, cross-over switches had to be repaired, new electric switch points installed and all trailer wires shifted. Alterations to the 366 miles of track also was necessary.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinek is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinek" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to be absolute protection or money refunded. The Pinek Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cleanly prepared.

STILL BLAME IT ON EVE

Tasnaya Polissia, Russia.—The idealistic community, composed of 15 young men and three women, living on the estate of the late Count Tolstoi, is encountering difficulties in its effort to attain Tolstoyan perfection of freedom.

The obstacles included unrequired love of one of its members, lack of money, food and clothes, and the antagonism of a neighboring, land-hungry peasant.

The latter occupies the village commune outside the gates of the park enclosing the Tolstoi home and are watching the new experiment with jealous fear that the members of the community may get away from them the land promised to the peasants by Tolstoi and subsequently by the Soviet government.

Suspicion has spread in the minds that the ideal communists will eventually take over many thousands of acres of forest lands comprising the now nationalized Tolstoi estate.

The same disappointment which Tolstoi himself encountered when he characterized his life as a huge tragedy because family ties prevented his living humbly, alone and free, loving every man and woman equally well, has begun to be experienced by at least one member of the group of idealists.

They planned to take up life like Tolstoi left it, to live and die alone and in poverty—but a handsome young woman member of the community, endowed with the wide nature of the Russians, is believed to have become a disturbing element and to have caused Kavassov, a stalwart young man in the group, to declare his intentions to walk to India and there pass his remaining days in contemplation, like the aged Hindu.

TRAVELS 8000 MILES TO GET CITIZENSHIP

German Living in Manila Thinks for 21 Years He Is U. S. Citizen.

Omaha, Jan. 12.—Max Schrein, of Manila, P. I., traveled 8,000 miles to the United States in order to complete his American citizenship after he had labored for 21 years under the delusion that he was a citizen of the United States.

Born in Germany, Schrein came to this country, and in 1892 visited in the United States army at Norfolk, Neb., serving in the Cuban campaign in the Spanish-American war and later in the Philippine insurrection. He had his first papers and thought that his citizenship could not be questioned, only to learn that he would have to leave the Philippines where he was employed in the government transportation service, and return to America to obtain his final papers.

Schrein set out nearly a year ago, leaving a native wife and six children in Manila, and came to Nebraska where he took up residence in Omaha while his naturalization case was pending in district court. When his final papers were handed to him Schrein said:

"I feel like getting down on my knees and thanking God that I am now a bona fide American citizen."

An interesting experiment has been carried on for the past nine years at the Rockefeller Institute. Here a piece of chicken heart has been under observation since 1912. At that time it was placed in a test tube in a solution of chicken plasma and other media, and has been kept in an incubator at 39 degrees Centigrade. Antiseptic baths and certain foods have been supplied and no perceptible change has taken place. Scientists connected with the institute regard the experiment as a possible proof of the non-existence of death. "While this Carrel experiment will not destroy death," it is reported in The World's Work, "it has modified certain ideas about it. It has great significance not only for the biologist, but for the philosopher."

A N Event Unique in the Business Annals of Newark a concerted First Co-Operative Sale a real money-saving event, giving you Actual and Bona-Fide Reductions of from 25 to 50%.

THREE BIG INTENSIVE DAY FRIDAY-SATURDAY & MONDAY

The merchants of Newark, with your interest in view, have arranged a big-three-day-underselling event--Friday and Saturday of this week and Monday of next,--which will be known as the Newark Merchants' Co-Operative Sale.

Nearly every line of Business will participate and so enthused are the various stores that much good-natured rivalry can be expected. Each will try to out do the others in offering the best values. Naturally such a condition will revert to your benefit, so you can key up your expectations to the highest point without the least chance of being disappointed.

Of course, you always expect lower prices in January, but this year there is a reason for making reductions more drastic than usual. The weather has been warm and unseasonable. Heavy merchandise hasn't moved as it should and many other things have operated to prevent the normal volume of business. The result is that nearly every store has supreme contentment," she declares "through love which is such a full life cannot be realized; though work, which most women shirk and though color, which most women fear because it is eccentric, a violation of the conventions.

"I could never write in ugly surroundings. Color is stimulant. I first learned this when I was studying to become an artist, before turning to writing. I found that my early color was no one who wished to do his work well. I studied the Orientals. They understood colors, perhaps as do no other people. I have many colored simonies and robes which I wear whenever I write. There is one, an exquisite thing of apple green silk, that looks as though it can move in lovely languor. LAST SHOWING OF
"SHAM." TONIGHT.
Elbert Clayton, Paramount star, gives great satisfaction to well filled crowds at the Alhambra yesterday in "Sham," which is an adaptation of the famous play of the same name and which was played for years on the American stage by Henrietta Crossman. This feature is screened tonight for the last time and no doubt Miss Clayton's friends will be out in full force.

TWO CARRIADS OF SCENERY FOR TINNEY.

"GIRL IN THE TAXI."
IN THE FILMS NOW.

The photoplay wherever presented has drawn capacity crowds and no doubt Newark movie fans will fall in line.

IS A GOOD OFFERING.

Lois Weber, the only woman who has won fame as a director of motion pictures, is responsible for this production. She credits the story to Marion Orth, but the development and direction are her own.

This clever woman has directed many pictures in the past, and the majority of them were successful.

She has a definite personality.

She has not been able to secure the medium of her pictures, and there are certain characteristics by which her productions may be known.

In this picture, which is the first under her contract with Paramount Miss Weber gives us some of her very best work. She appears to have left behind her the rather sensational views of weeping heroines . . . the tendency to become preachy.

The supporting cast includes Vic Carter, Frances Grant, Tel White, Mary Haun, Golden Sedano, Doris Arden, Lillian Blau, George Anderson, Rowland Woodward, Tom O'Hare, Vincent Townsend, Jerome Kirkland, Gerard Gardner, and a host of others, including a chorus of the book and lyrics are by Otto Harbach, Fred Mordan and Otto Goldwyn. And, as the producer, the Herbert Stothart, who has made the mark on Broadway. At least three of the song hits, "We've Got Something," "Temptation" and "If A Wish Could Make It So" are of that insistent haunting quality that keep the song stars thriving all over our musical land.

MAGNIDER WOULD POOL BONUS TO HELP VETERANS

Expect Several Millions
Will Be Obtained This Way.

To Be Used In Caring of Less Fortunate
Comrades.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—A fund of several million dollars to be loaned without security and with only a man's good standing in the American Legion as security, to war veterans who may be in temporary need because of disability illness and attendant unemployment or other causes, is planned by National Commander Hanford MacNider, who made arrangements in his service program for the coming year.

Mr. MacNider would create this fund by a pool of adjusted compensation allotments of veterans who feel they can spare the use of the money which would come to them in the terms of the recently adjusted compensation plan, which Legion leaders assert is certain of passage by the present congress. Mr. MacNider said announcement of this revolving fund plan would remove "practically the last vestige of opposition to the compensation measure by providing a way which a dollar could be loaned to the government under this act can be used to strengthen the economic fabric of the country by the rehabilitation of needy individuals who are not compensable under existing laws or who owing to administrative delays, have not received the benefits which they are entitled."

"While perhaps not more than two or three per cent of the men who served in the late war will not be able to earn in manners which will be of lasting benefit to themselves, their families and their communities the benefits which would accrue to them under the broad and diverse terms of the adjusted compensation bill," continued Mr. MacNider. "From this group we mean to obtain a fund of several million dollars to be used for the perpetual benefit of our less fortunate comrades."

"In every community we have veterans who are without employment. The ex-soldier and ex-sailor has suffered more than any other class from the present industrial depression. The Legion is doing all within its power to help them, but the means are limited. All we can do is to create by donations of adjusted compensation allotments by men and women who can spare it will solve the problem of the needy veterans who wants to work but can find no work to do."

"Another class is the sick and disabled. There are 90,000 men in hospitals under government care for infirmities caused by military or naval service. Not more than two-thirds of these men are drawing the disability compensation to which they are entitled. Hundreds have been obliged to leave the hospitals and in their enfeebled conditions try to work to support their families for whom the government has totally neglected to provide. There is another and larger class suffering from afflictions traceable to service who are receiving not even hospital care."

"There will shortly be launched by the Legion organization a campaign to bring to the attention of the bureau the case of every man who is not receiving the benefits to which he is entitled under the laws the bureau is supposed to carry out. It will be found that an astounding number of men will fall in this class. Three thousand are in actual want. We shall expect the bureau to adjudicate each case fairly and promptly. If not, the time will be at hand for a public examination of the bureau's affairs."

"The Legion can build this fund into the greatest single asset for service to the veterans that can be devised. It will assure as nearly as is humanly possible that every dollar paid out under the adjusted compensation act will be of real and lasting benefit to the country by benefiting those who served their country at the expense of health and fortune."

TO CHANGE PETROGRAD NAME TO LENINGRAD

Reval, Estonia.—Communist leaders propose to change the name of Petrograd to "Leningrad," according to Russian newspapers received here.

Built by the Czar Peter the Great, the former Russian capital was named by him St. Petersburg. By imperial decree at the commencement of the great war in 1914, the city was renamed Petrograd, the Russian equivalent of Petersburg, as the original name was German and thus considered unpatriotic when Russia and Germany were at war.

DETROIT LEADS SAN FRANCISCO

City Will Have Distinction of Having Most Extensive Municipally Owned Street Car System in World.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 12.—A "treaty of peace" between the city of Detroit and the Detroit United Railway, agreed to recently by plenipotentiaries of each, should all give Detroit the distinction of having the most extensive municipally owned street car system in the world.

Under the "treaty," signing of which marks the end of a 20-year war, the city proposes to take over soon the entire holdings of the company on a rental basis. At some time during 1922 the electors of the city will be called upon to a special election to vote on a question of purchase of the property by the city. As the people here have proposed even municipal street railway property almost two recent years, city officials expect the municipality will have the entire street car field here to itself before the beginning of 1923.

When the city assumed control its municipal street railway system will consist of 476 miles of trackage, putting it far ahead of San Francisco, its nearest rival in municipal street railway operation. The West Coast city's municipal system has but 60 miles of track.

Sotthened by the street car controversy, the overshadowing element in every municipal election here within the last two decades, came suddenly, the Detroit United agreeing to the rental proposition and proposed purchase after it was faced with eviction from two of the more important lines in the city.

After years of litigation, some of which found its way to the United States supreme court with resulting victories for the city, the municipality was authorized by the voters at a recent election to order the Detroit United Railway from parts of the Woodward avenue and Fort street lines upon which franchises had expired. This step followed refusal of the company to sell the lines to the city at a price the latter was willing to pay. The company was going ahead with plans to tear up its tracks on these lines when an agreement was reached between the city and Detroit United Railway ear, making use jointly certain pieces of tracks owned by one or the other.

Since the agreement was signed Detroiters have been afforded the unusual sight of co-operation between the two rival street railway companies. Municipal cars are run-

WEALTHY MEN MODEL PRISONERS

Quartet of Manufacturers Who Violated Sherman Anti-Trust Law Seen Content Prison Fare.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 12.—Four wealthy manufacturers, powers of the tile, grate and mantle industry, the first men ever to go to jail for violating the Sherman anti-trust law, have been pronounced model prisoners by Richard McGinnis, warden of the Newark street jail, where they are spending four months.

The quartet—Frank H. Nichols, Prince Shipton, Albert Shaffer and Arthur Shipton, who recently pleaded guilty of eliminating competition after their activities had been unearthed by the Lockwood legislative committee in New York—apparently are quite content with prison fare. Although their funds are sufficient to supply them daily with an outside caterers' products, they seldom supplement the prison menu with anything but pie. All have developed a strong taste for this form of sweetmeat and the pie-boy never misses them on his daily round of the tiers.

"Occasionally," said the warden today, "we have a particularly fine roast or fowl down at the staff dining room, and we will send some of the meat up to them. They could, of course, have meals sent in from the outside, but they seem satisfied with our regular food. That I take as a compliment to our kitchen."

The quartet are all housed in one large cell in the hospital wing, because one of their number is suffering from an illness which requires constant medical attention. Therefore they do not come into daily contact with the other prisoners—murders, burglars, petty thieves.

When visitors call, however, the four must follow prison routine and receive their visitors in the prison center or general entertainment room. On such days this center is uncomfortably crowded.

The four men of wealth while away the hours much as they would do in their clubs. They read their papers, their newspapers and their books. But instead of looking out on the avenue through glass crystal clear, they gaze through bars upon the historic Morris canal, as from a feudal castle.

OLD NAMES POPULAR.

Cleveland, Jan. 12.—Records of birth registrations in the division of health here show that John and Mary still lead in the names for babies. John is the most popular name for boys, with Joseph running a close second, and Mary leads the girls with Anna second, the records showing over Detroit United Railway tracks, while Detroit United cars are being operated over parts of the municipal lines.

Detroit's municipal lines came into being in 1920 when the voters approved a plan of Mayor James C. Clemons for construction of 12 miles of track. Work on the new line was started as soon as possible. Forty-five miles of the municipal system originally authorized now is under construction and many other miles of track is in process of building.

SIXTEEN RECEIVE SCHOOL LETTER

Sept. Barnes Gives Coveted Awards to Football Heroes at High School Meeting Yesterday.

Sixteen members of the Newark high school 1921 football squad were given letters at the high school auditorium Wednesday evening following the talk by Superintendent O. Barnes. The sixteen given letters were Captain Aaron Swartz, Charlesworth, Bert Wilson, Robert Adams, Raymond Swartz, Earl Montgomery, John Afric, Fred Barwick, Ellsworth Davis, Edward Juhim, Carroll Baker, John Alexander, Gomer Lewis, John Butterworth, Wilbur Keller and Paul Pine, the manager of the squad.

It was announced yesterday that there would be only 400 tickets sold for the coming game with Zanesville. The visitors had planned 500 but were forced to be content with only 400 since they were sent to them owing to the large crowd which were unable to gain admission to the ball in last Friday night's game. It was announced that only those holding tickets would be allowed in the ball in cash admissions being received at the door.

The entire squad has been practising hard all week in preparation for the game with Zanesville.

The visitors are coming here with plenty of good material and every promise is given of an exciting game Friday night. Coach Miller has been driving his men at a double time race and officials of the school promise that Newark will go into the game with all intentions of keeping the long end of the score at home.

Several of the Newark squad have been showing considerable form

both at the guarding game and in vaging the ball. "Shorty" Quinn has developed into one of the fastest and darkest guards developed in Newark for the past several years. Eddie

Wilson has shown considerable as a performer in helping in the points both by the field and on route.

HEISEY-BURKE CLASH TONIGHT

Golf Club Makers Will Strive to Smash Glass Defense — Heath-Midland Game is Opener.

One of the big battles in the Y. M. C. A. Industrial basketball League comes tonight at Uptown Hall when Burke plays Heisey. The players have been practicing for this game and are anxious to be on the long end of the score when the game closes. Heisey have not lost a game for a year and a half in the Industrial League and they don't intend to let Burke get away from them.

A fast game between Heath and Midland is staged as an opener tonight starting at 7:30. These two squads are scrapping for an upprun in the league ladder and should prove a sharp contest.

CANDY IS PRIZE IN TOURNAMENT AT Y

MEXICANS WANT TO MATCH TWO JACKS

Starting today the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. will give two half-pound boxes of candy each day to the highest scorer in pocket billiards and bowling.

In pocket billiards each day has ten consecutive shots and the one who makes the largest number of points wins. In bowling there will be added interest in this as one boy may make more pins than another yet lose the game if the total number of points he scored is smaller.

The bowling will be on the miniature bowling alley of the Boys' Department which has had such great popularity since the reestablishment of the Boys' Division.

The tournament is open to High school students only.

VOLLEY BALL CHAMPS TO BANQUET FRIDAY

The big "feast" for the Y. M. C. A. volleyball champs comes Friday night at 7 o'clock.

Applications to eat are coming in and speeches and awards will be on the program.

The "feasts" are scheduled at the 7 o'clock hour to permit the entire crew to work up an appetite in the gymnasium.

One of the losing aggregations has determined to bring sandwiches and no mention of the upper division of winners has appeared. It is declared that when the entire cast invades the dining room there will be no food wasted.

FOCH GIVEN INDIAN NAME

Mystery of Indian Understanding Entered Into Teton Ceremony Says Gilmore.

Red Tomahawk Present Pipe and Bestowed Dakota Name, Charging Lightning.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 12.—All the mystery of the Indian understanding of life, earth, water and sky entered into ceremony in which the members of the Teton tribe of the Sioux named Marshal Foch and smoked with him the pipe of peace, according to Melvin R. Gilmore, curator of the North Dakota Historical Society. In the course of the ceremony, within the allotted four minutes, a wrong interpretation was placed upon the name bestowed Red Tomahawk, according to Mr. Gilmore, who had the Indian chief repeat the name after the ceremony, that he might be certain of having it correctly placed in his historical records. Marshal Foch is placed in the mythology of the Tetons as Charging Lightning, the words for thunder and lightning being almost the same.

Dr. Gilmore's historical statement of the event says in part:

"Marshal Foch was met by a delegation of Teton Dakotas from the Standing Rock reservation of the Dakota nation. The leader of this delegation was Red-tomahawk, who ceremonially presented a pipe to Marshal Foch, and also conferred upon him a name in the Dakota nation. In his speech to the Marshal he said: 'My friend: The first time I ever heard of the great general, Marshal Foch, was at the time when we sent our young men to France. At that time, never thought that I should ever see the great general; but today I have the honor and the pleasure to see him, and I am glad. The young men of the French nation and young men of the Dakota nation fought together in the same cause against our common enemy, and some of both nations died together in that struggle and were buried in the same ground.'

"Then he held up the pipe and said: 'Among my people the Dakotas, it is our custom to offer the pipe and smoke together; so in like manner I wish to smoke with the Marshal and to give him this name as a token of friendship. Now the meaning of the pipe and its parts are these: the pipe-bowl is made from catlinite, a red stone which is found only in southwestern Minnesota. The stone in this use signifies firm and lasting friendship. The pipestem is of ashwood, and signifies that our friendship shall be durable and unbroken. The hollow of the pipestem through which we draw the smoke is straight, signifying that the words proceeding from our lips shall be just and true, and that our paths shall be straight. The colors of these ribbons upon the pipestem also have their meaning. The white signifies that all former differences are cleared away, and we shall be candid friends. The red ribbon is the color of blood and signifies that we are all of one blood.'

"Then Red-tomahawk held the pipe first to the North, then East, to South, and to the West; then aloft in the Sky, then downwards to Mother Earth. This was a form of invocation to all the Divine Powers.

"He then lighted the pipe and drew upon it, and then offered the mouthpiece to the Marshal, who also drew upon it, and then to Maj. Welch."

"Red-tomahawk was obliged to abstain from the smoking because of the lack of time. He also abridged the explanations of the symbolism for the same reason. If time had permitted all should have been seated upon the ground.

"The material for smoking, with which the pipe was filled, was a mixture of tobacco and the inner bark of a native shrub, a species of dogwood, Cornus stolonifera.

"Tobacco is invested with something of mystery and sacredness in the Indian though, and was used ceremonially in the manner of incense."

"After delivering the pipe to Marshal Foch, Red-tomahawk declared his desire and purpose to confer upon the Marshal the honor of a name in the Dakota nation, Wakinyan Wataape. This name with which Red-tomahawk invested the Marshal has significance in connection with the historic message sent by the Woodrow Wilson Memorial Foundation at the first battle of the Marne. The situation is excellent, I am attacking. The meaning of the Dakota word wataape is 'to make an attack,' 'to charge.' The meaning of the Dakota word Wakinyan is lightning. Therefore the meaning of the name is 'Lightning, in-attack,' or 'Lightning-which-attacks.'

ST. LOUIS IS THRIFTY.

Education in thrift is part of the St. Louis school program. Several years ago a waste-paper-saving movement was started in the public schools of that city. The remarkable results accomplished during the school year 1919-1920 are described by former Secretary of Commerce Alexander in "Commerce Reports." During one week more than 35 tons of old papers were collected by 100,000 pupils in 135 public schools, representing a value of $121,400. During the school year 1919-1920, 650,000 boys and girls reduced a net profit of $17,305. The proceeds are credited to the Teachers' Benevolent Association. It is expected that the receipts of 1920-1921 will exceed those of last year.

LEACH CHAIRMAN OF FOUNDATION FOR THIS COUNTY

Newton D. Baker, former secretary of War, and who is state chairman of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, has named Capt. E. D. Leach as chairman of the Foundation for Licking county. Capt. Leach says that he has not yet had time to formulate any plans, but expects to proceed as soon as possible to organize the county.

"The general object of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation," says Mr. Leach, "is to raise through popular subscriptions through the United States the sum of one million dollars. This fund is to be conserved by trustees, and annually a Board of Awards is to be appointed which will award out of the income of the fund to those who during the previous year are deemed to have given the greatest service to the cause of Democracy. This does not mean the Democratic party, but to the democratic theory of social and political institutions. From this point of view the object of the fund is to stimulate thought and service in the cause of democracy. From another point of view, however, the fund is designated to be a memorial to Woodrow Wilson and as such is bequeathed to him in his lifetime will convey to him in some slight sense the appreciation and loyalty of the people of the United States to his idealism and service to mankind."

"Those who have organized the Woodrow Wilson Memorial Foundation desire that it shall always be non-partisan and non-political. The appeal for contributions is therefore made to men and women everywhere who believe in the ideals and principles for which the president stood during the eight years of his administration."

A Bible Thought for Today.

WAY TO LIFE.—He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?—Micah 6:8

TWENTY PAGES TODAY.

MORE INTELLIGENT VOTERS.

New York state took quite significant action at its recent election, in voting for a constitutional amendment requiring that new voters must be able to read and write the English language. The states that have made this requirement believe they have secured good results from it. It works as an incentive to an illiterate man to get the fundamentals of life and provide them for his children.

In states having no such laws many politicians have feared to advocate such a proposition, fearing it would make them unpopular with illiterate elements. But the fact that this amendment got its best support right in the city of New York, where the illiterate vote is very heavy, suggests that even in the alien centers such a proposition would be popular.

The people who do not understand English are the constituency to which the big and little bosses make their principal appeal, and they get their ideas largely from this source and from foreign language newspapers. Naturally such citizens acquire many distorted notions. They often follow the lead of smart talkers who pose as their special friends, but who are dishonest or incompetent, and who give the people costly government.

An efficient and economical administration of public affairs, can only be secured when the mass of the voters can understand the issues as presented in American newspapers and English speaking assemblies.

There ought to be a movement all over the country to dignify the voting privilege, and exclude those who by reason of ignorance of the language are wholly unfit to exercise it. It may not be possible to take the voting privilege away from those who now have it, but at least new applicants for registration ought to be required to know the language of the country in whose government they ask to take a share.

KEEPING TO THE RIGHT.

Many automobile accidents result from failure to keep to the right hand side of the road. A lot of people get into trouble when they try to pass another car near a curve. Before they get ahead of the other machine, a third one comes around the curve in the opposite direction and a smash-up often occurs.

On the paved roads where center lines have been marked on curves, the painted line is a sharp reminder to every careless driver to stay where he belongs. The scheme of placing an "island" or "silent policeman" in the center of curves tends to tame speeders. Visible warnings influence many reckless drivers who forget all good counsels when they get behind a steering wheel.

IRELAND REPEATS HISTORY.

(Philadelphia) True friends of Ireland do not lose faith in its strength. True friends of the United States and in its prosperity do not lose faith in its strength. True friends of the simplicity of life do not lose faith in its strength. True friends of the poor do not lose faith in the poor. True friends of the people do not lose faith in the people. True friends of the people of the United States do not lose faith in the people for politics, it would be strange if no expression had been manifested to this overwhelming step.

While there will be a protracted period before the advantages of the new order of things are clearly seen, there is no question that Ireland's fate is to go, as a nation, to a serious question.

If Newberry did not know in the summer and fall of last what his friends were doing for him in Michigan, did not know that they were spending money with a lavishness beyond belief in that state, did not know that the methods of his wealthy supporters were calculated to distract the electorate—if he did not know these facts which thousands of fine people knew perfectly, it was a poor advertisement of his cushioned life.

It will be remembered that the Constitution of the United States, which we are accustomed to look upon as a very satisfactory document, despite some defects, excited the bitter opposition when it was first drafted and submitted to the several states for ratification. It was on September 15, 1787, that it had become clear that it had received the assent of the United States.

To such a fierce opposition, their fight leaders of that North Carolina and Rhode Island refused to ratify until the new Government had actually been set up in Philadelphia and had won the support of several members of Congress that opposed it.

According to Prof. James Jackson, another sincere leader of the Constitution, the opposition to American freedom, though strong in their views, but in view of the past 133 years since it first came into existence, their fight leaders of that North Carolina and Rhode Island refused to ratify until the new Government had actually been set up in Philadelphia and had won the support of several members of Congress that opposed it.

The pro-slavery party, however, did not oppose it, but rather supported it, and held it over temporarily until its death. Then after all the great battles had been fought, and the war was over, it was only a question of time when it would be adopted.

The woman who knew most about how to manage a husband was the woman who had never had one.

Love your neighbor as you love yourself, and you will always be able to get more out of him.

The pro-slavery party demonstrates that a profit may be about honor in its own country or anywhere else.

You never can tell. Many a man with a wife in the air wins up in the sun.

Tommy's "Papa" is for gentlemen, not for any one else.

Making Beauty Hold.

Although married some years every housewife should be just as careful when about her home as when she was a blushing bride. Carelessness in donning the morning wals, kimono or coffee jacket should not be tolerated by any woman when she dresses for breakfast. Her hair, skin and working clothes should be arranged with just as much care as though she were going to an afternoon bridge party.

Many women, after hours over the stove performing necessary household duties, have florid faces. While this is the result of the excessive exertions and nothing to be ashamed of, still it is not necessary to appear at the breakfast or dining table in this condition. Knowing that heat and exercise will bring not only color to the face, but in many cases, a coating of grease, it is one's duty to remove both for the sake of a good appearance of not for beauty.

This is best done by wiping the face with a soothing astringent lotion and then applying an even coating of good face powder. Some women object to the use of face powder, as there is no harm in using it provided the right kind is put on.

After a good cream should be used to clean off the powder when one retires.

GERMAN GOLD DIDN'T PAY BILL

Bolshevik Writer Denies That Berlin Paid
For Revolt.

Lenine's Party Was Escorted to Russia By German Officers.

Iida, Latvia.—Karl Radek, the Bolshevik writer and propagandist, has published an article in the Moscow Pravda's edition celebrating the fourth anniversary of the Lenine revolution in which Radek denies the widely-circulated story that the Bolshevik revolution in Russia was financed by German gold.

Radek's article is devoted to a description of the historic return of Nikolai Lenine from Switzerland through Germany to Russia in the spring of 1917, with the permission of the German government. This was the beginning of the revolution and of Russia's withdrawal from the war.

Radek asserts that Lenine and his party of 40 sent an emissary to the German minister in Switzerland asking free passage for all emigrants who wanted to return to Russia and insisting that during their passage, the German government should not attempt to中断 communication with them.

"On our side," Radek asserted,

"we promised to do everything for lightening the position of German prisoners of war in Russia and also to expedite the return of German invalids from Russia to Germany.

After a little time, the German government agreed to our conditions. Of course it was quite clear to us that the German government intended to speculate on this episode, fearing that after our arrival in Russia we would work for peace, but the conjecture interested us very little for we knew that if, in Russia, the revolution took a proletarian turn then its influence would tell far beyond the confines of Russia."

The party, says Radek, had an escort of German officers and, when it halted at railway stations, secret agents surrounded it to keep the German soldiers and other persons away from the dangerous Bolsheviks.

The returning emigrants were so hilarious that Lenine had to take over executive authority and bring about some order.

One attempt was made while the train was passing through Germany, says Radek, to sound out the party on the question of working for peace with Germany. This was made, he declares, by a German who said he wanted to greet the Russians in the name of the Central Commission of German Trade Unions, but Radek believed he was acting in behalf of the German government. The Bolsheviks, Radek says, refused to deal with him.

The Russian party then went to Stockholm, where, says Radek, "we received 300 Swedish kroner which apparently was that vast sum which was figuring in all tales of French patriots as German gold funds supplied for the Russian revolution."

WILL REORGANIZE CORPS OF GENDARMES

Lima, Peru.—A Spanish police mission engaged by the government has arrived in Peru to reorganize the corps throughout the republic. The members of this mission are of the celebrated Spanish corps of the "Benemerita" members of which have organized the gendarmes of Mexico, Cuba, Uruguay, Costa Rica, Columbia, Salvador and Guatemala.

An American naval mission and a French army mission have for some years had charge of the reorganization of these two important branches in Peru.

French Constructing Airplane Which Will Fly 24 Hours.

Said to Make Speed of 180 Miles An Hour.

Paris.—An American firm has just ordered an airplane of the type described by Louis Breguet, famous French flyer and constructor as "an ocean-crossing plane." M. Breguet recently predicted that these airplanes will be making frequent trips across the Atlantic within two or three years. They are now under construction.

They are expected to be able to fly 24 hours without stopping, at a speed of 180 miles an hour and to carry 20 or 30 passengers with baggage. This would bring the two continents within a day's travel of each other.

The planes are being planned with large wings, 100 feet thick, the interior of which will be used for cabin. As described by M. Breguet, their total weight will be 155 tons, their wings spread 375 feet and they will have 24 motors of 500-horsepower each.

It was contemplated of this big advance that led M. Breguet to suggest the possibility that an airplane eventually will be able to go around the world in one flight.

"There is no reason why an airplane could not make the circuit of the world without a stop, if we pursued the formula as to weight-lift, wing and speed and if greater room can be found for fuel, say 70 percent of the total lifting power," he said.

"Such plane would travel at a speed of 150 miles an hour, but this speed would be impossible unless the average height of 42,000 feet could be maintained. At such a height its ordinary descent would be one-fifth of its ordinary rate."

The visit was spread out by such a possibility's amazing. Man could fly around the earth faster than the earth's movement. He could, so to speak, catch up with the sun. New York would only be six hours from Europe.

"Again in the case of what would be the use of big fleets if they were faced with huge seas and bad weather, air travel becomes the only way of the world will then be ruled of the past, the only place in a museum next, let us say, to mammoths."

"People laugh at these predictions," concluded M. Breguet, "but so did people in 1840 when steam navigation was introduced."

TOLEDO SOLVES PARKING PROBLEM

Toledo, O., Jan. 12.—Toledo has started plans to permanently solve its automobile parking problems.

Joseph Tillman, a member of the city planning commission, has been authorized by the commission to draw plans and procure estimates on a parking measure that is expected to offer a permanent solution of "what to do with the car" when one comes to work in the morning.

Briefly, the plan is to construct a two-story, double-decked parking pier, fully inclosed and capable of taking care, at one time, of more than 1,500 motor cars.

The plan also outlined to the commission provides for the construction of a modern brick building, three blocks long, extending along the water front from Adams to Monroe street, with entrance and exits at both ends.

The first deck of the proposed building would be 21 feet above Water street, the river front street; the second deck would be 20 feet in

HAS NEVER TRAVELED OUT OF STATE SAYS OHIO FARMER

MR. LOUIS KLINGER, WESTERVILLE, O.

Longest Trip Since Childhood Was to Cleveland by Canal Boat, Gives Kadok Full Credit for His Present State of Good Health.

The numerous statements of local residents published daily, ought to convince the most skeptical that Kadok is an unusual remedy of real merit. Kadok, which was comparatively unknown until a short time ago, is now enjoying a steady and increasing demand and is out-selling every other remedy of its kind in this section of the country. The plain reason for this is that Kadok gives general satisfaction.

Mr. Louis Klinger, well known farmer whose postoffice address is 111 Main Street, Westerville, R. R. No. 2, in speaking of Kadok, says: "I was born in Germany 70 years ago, and was brought here when I was a child; my father helped to build the State House and I remember Columbus when it was a real country town and sparsely built. I have never had occasion to travel and have never been outside of Ohio. The longest trip I ever took was to go to Cleveland by canal boat and that was over thirty years ago. Some three or four years ago I commenced to have trouble with my stomach and kidneys and also attacks of rheumatism which became quite great and could find no way to overcome the trouble until recently when I commenced taking Kadok; this medicine certainly helped me; I get around all right now and eat hearty and sleep sound with no more aches or pains. I don't expect to feel as well as I did when I was young, but this Kadok has given me new strength and has actually made me feel ten years younger. No medicine could give any better results than Kadok gave me, and I feel very grateful to it."

Kadok is on sale at every druggist's and all drug stores throughout the city."—Adv't.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT'S ADMIRERS VISIT HIS GRAVE ON THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF HIS DEATH

height. The width of the building would be 60 feet.

Entrance on both sides of Water street are provided for. This would enable firms on that thoroughfare to open stores and shops similar to the subway store in New York.

The piers would be municipally owned, and preliminary estimates indicate the construction would cost around $1,000,000.

A charge of 10 cents for two hours' parking space is provided, and five cents an hour over that, with a maximum charge of 25 cents a day, and 50 cents for day and night storage.

The second deck of the building would be connected with the first by spiral automobile runways, similar to those in the most modern garages. This would do away with any necessity for elevator expense and would reduce maintenance costs.

With the schedule of charges outlined to the commission, Tillman says the building would not only be self-sustaining, but would pay for itself in a short time.

OHIO WILL HAVE MILLION MOTOR CARS

Cleveland, Jan. 12.—It won't be long before Ohio attains the almost unbelievable goal of a million automobiles registered, in the opinion of Fred H. Caley, manager of the Cleveland automobile show which is scheduled here for Jan. 21 to 28.

There are more motor cars in several individual counties of the state than there were in all Ohio when the registration law originally was enacted in 1919, Caley points out.

Even after Ohio began accumulating cars by hundreds of thousands the yearly increase continued extraordinarily, he said. "Five years ago there were 223,422 automobiles registered. Last year this was almost trebled, and during 1921, the registration jumped from 276,222 to 731,000. With such an increase in spite of sluggish business conditions, it is anticipated that the return to normal activity will see greater increases."

Last year, according to Caley, 55,000 new automobiles were purchased in Ohio. Ownership of autos is about evenly distributed between city and rural sections, he said.

WOULD RESTORE GOLD METALLIC STANDARD SOON

Bankers Think Such Effort Should Be Made—Would Need Co-operation.

Stockholm.—Representatives for the three Scandinavian central banks decided at a meeting just held here that endeavours should be made to re-establish an effective gold metallic standard in Europe, even though it should prove impossible for every currency to regain its former value in relation to the dollar.

The opinion of the meeting was that, until a fixed international measure of value had been obtained, every little country should abstain from all experiments with the stabilization of its currency.

STATE DECIDES SITE QUESTION

Historical Fort Creve Coeur Given To State.

Decision Made After 20 Years Controversy; Marker to be Placed.

Springsfield Ill., Jan. 12.—More than twenty years of investigation has been made by the state government here to determine the historic site of Fort Creve Coeur, on a bluff across the Illinois river from Peoria, has been definitely decided. Fifteen acres surrounding the site has been given to the state, and an imposing marker has been made ready for the formal ceremony of designation.

Announcement of the decision, by the Illinois State Historical Society was made by the State Department of Public Works and Buildings. The full report of the historical society will be made public later.

Contentions have been born, and have lived and died while this controversy has gradually increased in interest and warmth. All actual remains of the fort, built 21 years ago by the French, have disappeared, and decided by even now that the Illinois State Historical Society has spoken, the doubt has not been removed, and many contenders still maintain their hold on the sacred emblems of this earliest Illinois fort.

Owners of the land on which the marker will be placed are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wagner, of Fond du Lac Township, Tazewell county. They own the land to the east. Among them most energetic contender was the City of Peoria, which desired that the marker be set on the Peoria side of the river. Some argument for the Fort Creve Coeur on Peoria's side was advanced but it was too weak. Maps from official archives of the French government in Paris put the fort on the Tazewell side. With that decided the fort itself was still warm. Land owners up and down the river land their claim.

The search for the truth as to the exact site says an announcement by the Department of Public Works and Buildings was issued over many years. An account of all the theories is set forth in a translation of a book in French writers give in and many other books give in and make easier to decide the call of millions as compiler of the said. The Illinois State Historical Society finally selected as the actual location of the fort a spot situated on a rising bluff overlooking the Illinois river in Fond du Lac township, Tazewell county, south and east of Peoria. This is the site selected some years ago by the Peoria chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Probably the cheapest gift in the world is to give a man a vote of thanks.

FARM WOMEN TO ORGANIZE

Protect Against Being Called Down Trodden And Overworked.

Would Start Campaign Of Optimism, Want To Be Understood.

Chicago Jan. 12.—Protests by farm women—most being called overworked and downtrodden have followed at a meeting by the American Farm Federation for a national organization of women on "Farm women in numbers are beginning to realize the harmful effect of the old fashioned publicity," declares Mrs. Isetta Brown, of Kingwood, W. Va., a leader in this movement.

"The farm women who have awakened to their own possibilities say quite firmly that they want to start a campaign of optimism about country life. They don't want to be pitied, nor patronized, just understood—and if possible, a little idealized. They would appreciate it for a change."

For the first time the movement is general all over the United States for farm women to join the farm clubs of various sorts, Mrs. Brown reports.

"By working in clubs in various communities the farm women have learned the value of organized efforts in improving country life conditions," she said.

"I know of one little community of about 75 families in West Virginia where the school teacher and others have worked for years without piping running water into the school house from a spring just up the hill. The first year after the farm women organized into a club they saw to it that the spring water was piped into the school."

"There is something easy to be done in each community that will improve living and social conditions and each little success is leading the enterprising farm women on to greater ideals."

"They are realizing their power in bringing about better school conditions for others' children and each time any thing is done to make the boys and girls happier and more contented, the mothers know they are increasing the chances of holding the children on the farm."

"I think that is the keynote of the rebellion against the down-trodden and overworked publicity. The mothers realize that only too often the children get the 'city folks' point of view when it is expressed as deprecating farm life."
